7 Cooperative Principles

- 1. Open and Voluntary Membership: Membership is open to all persons who are willing to accept the responsibilities of a Cooperative membership.
- 2. Democratic Member Control: Cooperatives are controlled by their members who actively participate in setting policies and making decisions.
- 3. Members’ Economic Participation: Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control, the capital of their cooperative.
- 4. Autonomy and Independence: Cooperatives are autonomous, self-help organizations controlled by their members.
- 5. Education, Training, and Information: Education and training for elected representative and employees help them effectively contribute to their Co-op.
- 6. Cooperation Among Cooperatives: By working together through local, national, regional, and international structures, Co-ops work throughout their communities.
- 7. Concern for Community: Cooperatives work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies supported by membership.
